DO YOU WANT YOUR SECURITY DEPOSIT BACK?

No. I'm independently wealthy and you (KAMAP) may keep it because you guys are such good people.

Yes I would like my security deposit back, so I will turn in a stamped envelope and address it to the place I want you to send my check. I will also enclose a form (please use the form at the bottom of this page), signed by all the persons who are on my lease, telling KAMAP what percent of the deposit we have agreed that each of us should receive.

My roommates and I are not sure of what we want and kind of like the adventure of hunting for our money later. Please send our check to our present address and let's see if the Post Office will forward it to the place we're at. Since we're not going to give you a clue as to how to divide our refund, we understand that you will be just sending one check, made out in all of our names. We are looking forward to the fun of trying to get each other's signatures on it before we can finally cash it.

SECURITY DEPOSIT DISTRIBUTION INSTRUCTIONS

We signed the lease for the apartment at _____ (Address of our apartment)

We would like our security deposit refund distributed in the following percentages (you may also instruct Kamap to send the entire deposit to one person who will then divide it). We understand that everyone who is officially on the lease must sign the distribution instruction we give to Kamap, even if one person gets the whole (100%) amount. (Just to avoid the appearance of impropriety, please fill out a new form if you make ANY mistakes on this one.)
